Valentine's Day at Moles La Tia

Saturday, February 14, Valentine's Day, I will be playing the harp from 4 to 8 pm at Moles La Tia located on 4619 E. Cesar Chavez Ave., Los Angeles. This great restaurant is well known for their great moles ($11 to $18), but have other great dishes. One favorite is Manchamanteles (salmon with pistachio mole). They also have great art – I will be taking my art and CDs. My art will be on sale at ridiculously low prices. Follow President's Obama's suggestion and spend some money – on art, my art! For more information on Moles la Tia call (323) 263-7842 or visit www.moleslatia.com

16th De Colores Art Show & Festival is just around the corner!

Sunday, April 5, at the beach in Ventura – on the Promenade between the Crowne Plaza Hotel and the Artist’s Union Gallery
The festival is shaping up to be a fantastic event. As usual we will be opening with an Aztec Blessing (that will be spectacular with the beach as a backdrop) by Danza Cuauhtemoc Mexica; music by Grupo De Colores with special guest Delia Gonzales; the very talented Ancient Sounds of Mexico from L.A. with Santa Paula Poet, Luzmaria Espinosa; The huasteco sounds of Conjunto Xoloitzcuintli; guitarist and vocalist, Carmen Moreno; Oxnard’s own internationally renown Conjunto Hueyapan; Mariachi Aguilas de Mexico with vocalist Daniela Flores; and the beautiful Ballet Folklorico Mestizo de Oxnard College. The art of over 30 Latino artists will be on exhibit at the Artist’s Union Gallery right on the Plaza. We will also have arts & crafts as well as artists’ vendors. There is a great restaurant that serves steak and sea food, Aloha, at the end of the Plaza. The City of Ventura is the presenter this year and we have great sponsors to thank: The Crown Plaza Hotel, TimeWarner Cable, CAUSE, Community Memorial Hospital; AAA; LAZER Broadcasting, Cumulous Broadcasting, and Clinicas del Camino Real. Coming soon on our website will be information with links for presenters.

Mark your calendars for Sunday, April 5 and join us at Ventura Beach on the Promenade for the 16th De Colores Art Show & Festival.
